

Dr. Lucas Murrey's Statement from 8 April 2024

Ms. Valdes is someone with whom I matched briefly on a dating app (for less than two minutes). But Valdes then later participated in an online group that sought to harass, dox, gang-stalk and cyberbully me. I do not know who this woman is and continue to have no interest in her. Yet for years, she has gone on social media, web-platforms and even national television to attack someone who she has never met. This behavior should not be normalized and I am challenging every person in their various roles. The ruling was based only on portions of Valdes's statements about me and I will provide updates on this subject. However, this is a situation that is bigger than mere libel. We face a threat to privacy and I am prepared for the long fight ahead. Finally, my GoFundMe is back up and any and all support is welcome!
